

I am very opposed to the Consumer Bankers Association is challenging Indiana's Telephone Privacy law, by wanting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on consumers in this state. Any company I have a business relationship with, certainly has other options to contact me, without telemarketing.

I urge you to not allow the CBA to weaken the Telephone Privacy law in the state of Indiana!